FIFTEEN CENTS

ACHS names Allen Supt.

by LEE ANN MACKULIN

Gary Allen has been appointed to replace Warren Polley as superintendent of Antioch Community High School, to be effective July 1, 1985. The decision was made at the school board meeting Feb. 21.

Allen has been director of curriculum at ACHS for the past six years and assistant superintendent the past two. He has been a teacher, coach and department chairman at the high school for the past 17 years.

"I have admired Warren and how he handled the job," said Allen.

He will seek to "continually improve and strengthen education for the students" at ACHS, by improving teaching methods.

"We have done a lot of in service on computers. Presently, we're involved with improving (the teachers) critical thinking and teaching skills," he said.

Referring to the recent over-all effort into improving curriculum, Allen said, "I like what has happened recently in education."

A 23 year resident of Antioch, Allen lives on Lake Antioch with his wife Susan and their nine children, all of whom attended (three still do) Antioch High.

Prior to moving to this area, he taught social studies, coached and was principal at a high school in Paw Paw, Ill. Allen has been in education for 28 years, attributing this long-standing career to his desire to work with and improve education for students and good timing.

"I've had a lot of good experience in education and was always at the right place at the right time," said Allen.

Allen received his B.A. from Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill., his Masters from Roosevelt University, and in January, received a Certificate of Advanced Studies with a Superintendents Endorsement from the University of Illinois.

The school board is currently seeking to fill the position of director of curriculum at the high school.

Village looks to stop vandals

Why anyone would want to take away from the beauty of the Hiram-Buttrick Sawmill, is the question people at the Antioch Village Hall are asking.

Vandalism to the lights surrounding the mill behind the senior center, has been occurring frequently, according to Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz.

A lot has been done in an effort to protect the lights, such as putting wire around them.

"There's no reason why they can't leave the mill alone," said Sterbenz.

"There's going to be strong retribution if anyone is caught vandalizing," she added.

Weber enthusiastic about April election

by LEE ANN MACKULIN

Eager, enthusiastic but void of any conflict concerning her opponents, independent candidate Mable Lou Weber is thoroughly enjoying campaigning for Mayor of Antioch.

"There are no real issues to bring up," said Weber.

Mayor Raymond Toft and Weber go way back, and tend to see eye-to-eye on anything pertaining to the village.

"Ray and I went to high school together. It's like old home week this election," she said.

The biggest issue in Antioch is the redevelopment. How much will be done with it in the next four years remains a mystery.

"Something will be started on it definitely. What and how far, I have no idea," said Weber.

Obstacles foreseen are exactly where the finances will come from and more importantly cooperation in the buying of private property needed for expansion.

"We have to seek cooperation from everyone. This has to be a joint effort," said Weber.

"I also want to see us take care of what we've got now. We have a sewage problem, we're going to have to revamp our treatment plant," said Weber.

Weber was appointed to the village board in November, 1979, filling the vacancy created by the death of her husband, Arnold Weber. She served as trustee until May 1981, and was elected again in 1983.

She is a member of the Antioch Women's Club, and member and organist of the United Methodist Church. She is employed as office manager of the Antioch Bowling Lanes.

In looking ahead of other needed improvements, Weber said, "I would like to see the extension of Depot St. and see what can be done about the traffic flow."

"I would not change any personnel at this time," she added.

Henry Gilman is the other independent candidate running for mayor in the April 2 election.

Village pays to pump out sludge

Removing 225 gallons of sludge and other materials from the digester located near the village garage was the main topic at the Antioch Village board meeting Feb. 18.

The village will spend a minimum of $45,000 for the removal. As part of the old plant, the digester hasn't been cleaned in its twenty years of existence, according to Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz.

In cleaning the digester, the village "wants to look at what will be good for waste treatment in the future," said Trustee Mable Lou Weber.

The EPA will be "happy with the fact that we're cleaning it," said Weber.

Besides the long-term benefits to come from cleaning the digester, it will also solve some immediate problems.

Sludge needs to be circulated constantly to keep it at the desired 95 degrees, said Superintendent of Public Works, Todd Mapletorpe. Presently, it isn't circulating properly, so the sludge isn't "digesting" properly, he explained. The only way to get the built-up sludge out is by pumping it, requiring a specialist.

The National Power Roding Co. is one of the near-by companies being considered. Distance is a key factor since the village will be charged for both the removal and the hauling of the waste to the landfill.

Other bids are being considered and will be decided on at the March 4 board meeting.

Other business included the purchase of two new squad cars for the Antioch Village Police Dept. The two cars will be purchased from Schaumburg Dodge. Different bids were considered but this was the best value.

Schugart performs

Barrette Schugart, freshman at Iowa Wesleyan College, performed in two musicals recently on the Wesleyan campus in Mt. Pleasant. The musicals were produced as part of the class "The American Musical Theatre" during the January Interim.

Written and choreographed by Iowa Wesleyan students, the musicals utilized storybook, movie and television show characters in original situations. They were performed for 350 third and fourth grade students from Mt. Pleasant and New London.

Antioch expands in 1984

Having its second largest construction year in 21 years, the village of Antioch showed a real desire for expansion and improvement in 1984.

New industrial buildings, multiple family housing (the 25 unit senior building) and single family residences comprised most of the new buildings.

Industrial alterations totaled $15,000, garage permits $74,340, new commercial buildings $160,000, commercial alterations, additions and repairs $188,417, new industrial buildings $841,000, single family residences $855,109 and multiple family housing $880,294. Almost $616,500 was spent on public buildings.

All total, the village spend $3,178,160 in building last year. Since 1963, $41,096,736 has been put into construction in the village.

ACHS students win awards at skills contest

Members of Antioch Community High's Office Education (OE) Program and Distributive Education (DE) Program recently won awards in skills competition.

On Feb. 1, ACHS students competed in office skills competition in College of Lake County's Business Wing. Six other area high schools were involved.

Chris Nileikis and Sue Nemec, both ACHS students, won awards. Nileikis finished first in Ex-temporaneous Verbal Communications Contest and Nemec placed second in Stenographic II Contest. The two will go on to compete at the state contest in Springfield March 7, 8 and 9.

On Feb. 6, at Lakehurst, members of the DE Program competed in the Retailing Related Skills Contest. Andy Bemis, Scott Prochnow and Mike Reijonen, all ACHS students, won awards.

Reijonen finished first in the clothing contest, Prochnow placed second in finance and credit and Bemis took second in general merchandising.

All three competed in contests which were related to the job types they have as part of the DE Program. They will compete at the DE State Contest, Feb. 28 and March 1-2.

Walleye seminar scheduled March 2

Antioch area anglers will have the opportunity to improve their skills by attending a seminar entitled "Lake Erie Western Basin Walleyes". The seminar will be conducted by Chicago Sun Times Outdoor Editor John Spehn and Midwest Outdoors Field Editor Ray Hansen.

The Edison Park United Methodist Church, 6740 N. Oliphant Ave. in Chicago, will hold a session of the seminar on March 2.

Some of the best walleye fishing opportunities anywhere in midwestern United States are found within easy driving distance on Lake Erie off the shores of Ohio. Habitat improvement programs combined with heavy stocking efforts have resulted in huge walleye populations. These fish form the basis for a large charter industry similar to the salmon-trout fleet working our own Lake Michigan.

Spehn and Hansen's seminar include a slide presentation and video film showing methods to make those 'big catches'. Topics such as lure selection, saving money on tackle purchases, use of scents, finding reasonable lodging, camping, rod-reel-line combinations, bait tricks and much more are discussed.

In addition, two of Lake Erie's most successful charter captains, John and Bob Lesniewitz, will be on hand to offer instruction on the latest fishing techniques.

Charter dates will be available at the seminar. Admission is $5 at the door. For more information, call 858-5523.

Students win band awards

The Antioch Upper Grade School recently proved what area residents have suspected all along...there are many talented youngsters in Antioch.

Members of the school's senior band participated in the Illinois Grade School Music Association Solo and Ensemble Contest Saturday in Barrington, Ill., walking away with many awards.

Winning 'Superior Firsts' in the contest were Cindy

Macek, Tonya Tinton, Kim White and Rob Delaney, for their solos; and Dawn Flood, Heather Nelson, Jill Banks and Alicia LaVigre for duets.

Taking first place with their solo performances were Peter Han, Mike Schulz, Jennifer Hague, Ryan Ward, Erika Landl and Brenda Borla.

First place duet winners were Laura Delano, Jenny Forrest, Sue Hubbard, Rob Delaney, Dennis Hammond, Denise Tonyan, April Kisel, Erika Landl, Jennifer Buriena, Elaine Johnson, Brenda Borla, Connie Haugk, Jennifer Haley, Ryan Ward, Peter Han, Tami Glassner and Lisa Marley.

Placing first for their trio are Lisa Cook, Chris Van Horn and Nikki Corris.

Second place solo winners are Sue Hubbard and Jackie Meyers.

The band is under the direction of Earl Busch.

Edwards files for township trustee

Ray Edwards, life-long Antioch resident, has decided to run for a seat on the Antioch Township Board of Trustees in the April 2 election.

Edwards is a member of the Moose Lodge No. 525, Antioch Lions and 885-Civic Club. He is a past master of the Masonic Sequoit Lodge 885 and this year's recipient of the Meritorious Service Award, the highest honor bestowed a masonry.

A staunch supporter of conserving the beautiful land, lakes and streams in Antioch, Edwards is a lifetime member of Ducks Unlimited, N.R.A., and the Northern Illinois Conservation Club.

Edwards views Antioch as an area of people concerned with matters such as reducing acts of theft and home invasion, putting in street lights at different busy intersections, solving drainage problems, road repair and cleaning up of a few areas are a few matters.

A few areas Edwards would like to see looked into are, having all zoning changes monitored by elected township officials, pollution control co-operation within the village, county and state and becoming aware of what happens with the Chain 'O Lakes Water Management Commission, seeing that the majority of lakes are in Antioch Township.

Edwards feels that many 'outsiders' to Antioch take advantage of the area, for their personal, financial gain. This, in turn, leaves the residents of Antioch with higher taxes to support the conditions, which are a result.

"Our federal dollars are going to Washington D.C. and the only way to get them back to Antioch Township is to prepare and submit proposals for the Federal Grants," said Edwards.

Edwards would make sure that the tax dollars get back to the Antioch residents.

Edwards sees the real problem in Antioch lying with the senior citizens.

The real problem "is with the proud senior citizens who have worked all of their lives to retire with dignity and now find that they cannot afford to live comfortably and many times must go without," said Edwards.

Edwards is an independent candidate for township trustee.

Student learns in France

Mary Lynn Hamlin, of 1200 Main St., Antioch, is spending Spring semester in France as part of St. Benedict-St. John's University International Studies Program. Hamlin is a junior, majoring in government and English at the College of St. Benedict.

The program, in the area of Cannes, has a two-fold objective; acquisition of French language skills and appreciation for the heritage and history of the French people.

Cannes, a city of 69,000 people located on the shores of the Mediterranean Sea, is noted for warm winters and beautiful spring flowers. This colorful region, the Cote d'Azur, has inspired many painters with its grandeur, including Matisse and Picasso.

Upon arrival at the College International de Cannes, the 26 students participating will take a language placement test to determine the French language, literature and civilization courses in which they will enroll. A basic knowledge of French is recommended. Courses in Art History will be taught in English.

Director of the program and instructor of French at CSB-SJU is Father Jerome Tupa. He holds a Ph. D. in language and literature from the Sorbonne in Paris, where he lived for four years.

Students may live in dormitories, apartments or with French families. While attending classes, students will study with 150 others, representing every continent.

Excursions to cities such as Nimes, Arles, Orange and Avignon, to abbey churches, and other sites are prevalent the first months of the program. Students may use their Eurail Youthpasses to extend their travel opportunities independently during Easter vacation and after the program ends.

The International studies program at CSB and SJU offers semester study tours to Spain, France, Greece, Rome, Austria, Ireland and England, plus a year-long program in Japan. About 70 students, ten from other colleges, are participating in the two spring programs to Cannes and London.

One half of the world's newspapers are written in English.

OUTSTANDING PLAYER—Basketball player Joe Keim, center, was selected as athlete of the week for his outstanding performances in two Antioch High games. Antioch resident causes three-car accident

Michael Polansky, 39, Antioch, has been charged with driving under the influence, after failing to reduce his speed, thus causing a three-car accident on Washington Street in Gurnee.

Joann Burnett, 32, Ingleside, is still in St. Therese Hospital, Waukegan and is in satisfactory condition. Her children, Brad 9, Donnie 8, Jessie 6, Spencer 4 and Polansky were all treated at St. Therese and all released, according to hospital authorities.

According to Gurnee Police Sgt. Ronald Paulson, Polansky crashed into Burnett's car which was forced into the car of Edith Schackmuit, 52, of Gurnee, who was stopped in the westbound lane of Washington Street waiting to turn into the driveway.

To clear the cars off the road, both lanes were closed to traffic for a half-hour, according to accident reports.

Antioch Splits Games, To Face Champion Niles

by MIKE PRAMSHAFFER

The Antioch High School Varsity Basketball team split its two North Suburban Conference games last weekend to move its record to 8-9 in the conference.

The Sequoits lost to Warren 58-48 on Feb. 22 and then bounced back to defeat Stevenson 52-50 on Feb. 23.

Antioch is now 10-14 overall and is tied for fifth place in the conference with Mundelein.

Against Warren, the Sequoits couldn't handle the Blue Devils' senior guard Terry Glogovsky as he sparked Warren to its 10-point victory.

Glogovsky had a couple of steals and five points in the second quarter, which turned an Antioch one-point lead into a Warren seven-point lead at the half.

The Blue Devils then pulled away in the third quarter as they outscored the Sequoits 15-9 to take a 41-26 lead going into the final period.

Antioch tried to come back in the fourth period but couldn't overcome the 15-point bulge.

Senior Joe Keim was the only Antioch player to reach double figures in the scoring column as he scored 13 points.

In the Stevenson contest, the Sequoits jumped out to an early 11-6 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Patriots, however, came back in the second quarter to take a one-point lead at the half 22-21, but they couldn't hold on to it as Antioch responded to take a 37-36 lead going into the final period.

The Sequoits held on to their lead by outscoring the Patriots 15-14 in the fourth period for the two-point victory.

Keim and senior Dave Hart led the Antioch scoring attack as they scored 13 and 10 points respectively.

The Sequoits will take on league champion Niles North on Tuesday, Feb. 26 at Niles.

The Vikings are presently 16-1 in conference action and 21-3 overall.

Student learns in France

Mary Lynn Hamlin, of 1200 Main St., Antioch, is spending Spring semester in France as part of St. Benedict-St. John's University International Studies Program. Hamlin is a junior, majoring in government and English at the College of St. Benedict.

The program, in the area of Cannes, has a two-fold objective; acquisition of French language skills and appreciation for the heritage and history of the French people.

Cannes, a city of 69,000 people located on the shores of the Mediterranean Sea, is noted for warm winters and beautiful spring flowers. This colorful region, the Cote d'Azur, has inspired many painters with its grandeur, including Matisse and Picasso.

Upon arrival at the College International de Cannes, the 26 students participating will take a language placement test to determine the French language, literature and civilization courses in which they will enroll. A basic knowledge of French is recommended. Courses in Art History will be taught in English.

Director of the program and instructor of French at CSB-SJU is Father Jerome Tupa. He holds a Ph. D. in language and literature from the Sorbonne in Paris, where he lived for four years.

Students may live in dormitories, apartments or with French families. While attending classes, students will study with 150 others, representing every continent.

Excursions to cities such as Nimes, Arles, Orange and Avignon, to abbey churches, and other sites are prevalent the first months of the program. Students may use their Eurail Youthpasses to extend their travel opportunities independently during Easter vacation and after the program ends.

The International studies program at CSB and SJU offers semester study tours to Spain, France, Greece, Rome, Austria, Ireland and England, plus a year-long program in Japan. About 70 students, ten from other colleges, are participating in the two spring programs to Cannes and London.

One half of the world's newspapers are written in English.

OUTSTANDING PLAYER—Basketball player Joe Keim, center, was selected as athlete of the week for his outstanding performances in two Antioch High games. He scored 43 points and had ten rebounds and four assists in the loss to Fenton and the victory over Zion. Sally Revis, left, assistant manager of the Bank of Waukegan, presented Keim with a $50 check in his name to the Antioch High School Parent-Teacher Club Scholarship fund. Tracy Goodyear of the Girl's Basketball team, was also nominated for her outstanding performances against Libertyville and North Chicago.—Photo by Lee Ann Mackulin

Antioch resident causes three-car accident

Michael Polansky, 39, Antioch, has been charged with driving under the influence, after failing to reduce his speed, thus causing a three-car accident on Washington Street in Gurnee.

Joann Burnett, 32, Ingleside, is still in St. Therese Hospital, Waukegan and is in satisfactory condition. Her children, Brad 9, Donnie 8, Jessie 6, Spencer 4 and Polansky were all treated at St. Therese and all released, according to hospital authorities.

According to Gurnee Police Sgt. Ronald Paulson, Polansky crashed into Burnett's car which was forced into the car of Edith Schackmuit, 52, of Gurnee, who was stopped in the westbound lane of Washington Street waiting to turn into the driveway.

To clear the cars off the road, both lanes were closed to traffic for a half-hour, according to accident reports.

Chamber prepares for Easter event

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry is seeking participation from individuals, groups and organizations in their first-ever Easter Parade.

Everyone is invited to come and enjoy the parade March 16 and to see the 'World's Biggest Rabbit' at the Easter Castle which is presently being constructed.

After the parade an Easter-Egg hunt will be conducted through the Antioch Parks and Recreation Dept. Anyone interested in entering a float or volunteers who would like to help the chamber make the parade a success, call Glenda Tomaschlik at 395-2160.

Antioch Splits Games, To Face Champion Niles

by MIKE PRAMSHAFFER

The Antioch High School Varsity Basketball team split its two North Suburban Conference games last weekend to move its record to 8-9 in the conference.

The Sequoits lost to Warren 58-48 on Feb. 22 and then bounced back to defeat Stevenson 52-50 on Feb. 23.

Antioch is now 10-14 overall and is tied for fifth place in the conference with Mundelein.

Against Warren, the Sequoits couldn't handle the Blue Devils' senior guard Terry Glogovsky as he sparked Warren to its 10-point victory.

Glogovsky had a couple of steals and five points in the second quarter, which turned an Antioch one-point lead into a Warren seven-point lead at the half.

The Blue Devils then pulled away in the third quarter as they outscored the Sequoits 15-9 to take a 41-26 lead going into the final period.

Antioch tried to come back in the fourth period but couldn't overcome the 15-point bulge.

Senior Joe Keim was the only Antioch player to reach double figures in the scoring column as he scored 13 points.

In the Stevenson contest, the Sequoits jumped out to an early 11-6 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Patriots, however, came back in the second quarter to take a one-point lead at the half 22-21, but they couldn't hold on to it as Antioch responded to take a 37-36 lead going into the final period.

The Sequoits held on to their lead by outscoring the Patriots 15-14 in the fourth period for the two-point victory.

Keim and senior Dave Hart led the Antioch scoring attack as they scored 13 and 10 points respectively.

The Sequoits will take on league champion Niles North on Tuesday, Feb. 26 at Niles.

The Vikings are presently 16-1 in conference action and 21-3 overall.

Elfridea Mau

Funeral services for Elfridea D. Mau, 82, of Blue Island, Ill. and formerly of Antioch were held on Saturday, Feb. 23 at the Hallinan Funeral Home in Blue Island.

Mrs. Mau died on Wednesday, Feb. 20 in Chicago. She was born on April 7, 1899 in Grant Park, Ill. She was a member of the Royal Neighbors of America.

Survivors include two sisters, Ella DeWar and Esther Wiksten; and several nieces and nephews.

Earl Lingo

Funeral services for Earl K. Lingo, 61, of Antioch were held on Thursday, Feb. 21 in Antioch.

Mr. Lingo died on Monday, Feb. 18 at Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan. He was born on July 11, 1923 in Lansing, Mich., and was a resident of the Chicago area before moving to Antioch 11 years ago. He was employed by Illinois Tool Works, Hi-Cone Division in Itasca for the past 21 years.

Survivors include his wife, Irene; three step-children, Patricia (Rolff) Behr of Twin Lakes, Wis., Thomas (Anelia) Weeks of Antioch and Richard (Delores) Weeks of Kankakee, Ill.; one sister; and five grandchildren.

Interment was at Willow Lawn Cemetery in Mundelein.

The word band comes from an ancient word for bind, since a band is a group of musicians bound together.

Former president to speak

Former Antioch Lions president Joseph Hunley will give a talk on 'Mt. St. Helens' on March 4, 1 p.m.

The presentation will be given at the meeting of the Antioch Womens Club. Hunley has previously presented this program to the Rotary members.

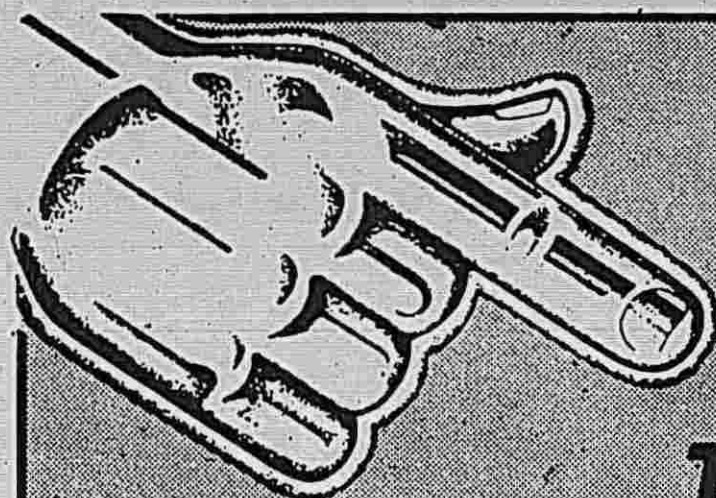

"Genius is patience."

Buffon

WE WISH to express our heartfelt gratitude to all of the fine people that helped us in so many ways during our time of anxiety and turmoil. The cards, fruit baskets and flowers were sincerely appreciated as well as the prayers, phone calls and expressions of concern. We wish to extend a very special thank you to Rev. Steve Williams for his thoughtful time and gentle consideration. Thank you all!
